

CRANK SEES GOULD.

He Demands Five Thousand Dollars in Gold.

This Represented, He Said, What He Lost in a Railroad Strike.

The Financier Humored Him Till the Police Arrived.

A crank went into Edwin Gould's office in the Western Union building this afternoon and demanded $5,000. He said that the Goulds were responsible for his losing that sum during a railroad strike at Rosendale, Kan.

If the sum was paid over, further trouble would be prevented. It is not known whether the crank threatened to use violence if his demand was not acceded to.

The crank was arrested and taken to Police Headquarters. He gave the name of Mongolia Andrews, said he was twenty-four years old and married. He stated that he was a telegraph operator by occupation, and resided at 375 C'ward street, Brooklyn.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon Supt. Byrne received a message from Edwin Gould stating that the crank was asking for protection from the bank.

Inspector McLaughlin detailed Detective William Clark. He went to Mr. Gould's office. Andrews was waiting in the hall and he was placed under arrest. He made no resistance.

Mr. Gould said that the stranger was shown to him. He was small of stature, wore a black mustache and was of swarthy complexion. He was shabbily dressed.

"Mr. Gould," said Andrews, "you have been responsible for my losing $5,000 during the strike at Rosendale, Kan., and I want you to reimburse me. I am poor. You have robbed me."

The man who was dealing with him at once humored him. He had him shown into his private office and the crank told him that he was a telegraph operator and that he had lost $5,000 during the strike at Rosendale, Kan.

But it was for Byrne's man that he had come. He was a telegraph operator and he had lost $5,000 during the strike at Rosendale, Kan.

Andrews was arrested before Supt. Byrne could get to the bottom of the matter. He was taken to the police station and the two were released for further time.

The crank is locked up at Police Headquarters.

GRIMM CATCHES SIMS NAPPING

on Old Raceland and Wins with Roche.

ARMITAGE TAKES THE FIRST.

Prince George, Addie and Poor Jonathan Also Win at Elizabeth.

RACE TRACK, ELIZABETH, Oct. 29.—Racing was continued at Elizabeth to-day with an excellent card of six races.

The track was in excellent shape, and the sport was first class throughout the afternoon.

The weather was not all that could be desired, for the keen west wind brought with it a hint of approaching winter.

The sport began with a five and one-half furlong dash. Armitage opened favorite, but a rush of money on Fido made the latter the choice, while Armitage receded to a 2-1. Harrington was also well supported.

The youngsters delayed the start considerably, but they finally got away in good order.

Robin Hood and Armitage set a hot pace to the stretch. There the two favorites came through, and Armitage beat Fido, after a hot race, through the last furlong.

Robin Hood died away in the last sixteenth and was beaten out of third place by Harrington.

Prince George was a hot favorite in the second race, and he carried the money of the favorite successfully. He lay behind Fido until the stretch was reached. Then he cut loose with the Prince and won easily.

Comanche took second place when Robin Hood was beaten, but the latter came again at the finish and won the race.

Sims scored his third winning point in the third race. He rode Addie, who was a hot favorite. She was in front from start to finish.

May or Pay, the second choice, was second up to the last few jumps, where Luce came strong and secured the place by a neck.

FIRST RACE.
Purse $200. For two-year-olds which have not won since Sept. 28. Five and one-half furlongs.
